Good day Dibayndu Das,

Thank you for contacting Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC).

We verified the information you provided and can confirm that your work permit application is still in process.

At this time, all required documents and information have been received by the responsible office.

If you've already submitted an application for a work permit inside Canada (initial, extension and change of conditions or for asylum claimants):

- Check the processing times available on our website,
 - we've updated the processing times for many applications to be more accurate, please visit our website to learn more about how processing times are calculated,
- Check your application status,
 - select your type of application for more information on how to check the status of your application,
 - the Client Support Centre agents cannot give you more information than what is available in the tools.

If an application is complex, it may take us longer to process it. It will also take longer to process an application if we need you to submit extra documents.

Rest assured that we understand how important this process is for you and we are making all the necessary efforts to finalize your application as soon as possible. We will inform you once a decision is reached or if additional information is needed.

We hope the information provided is helpful in assisting you with your enquiry.

We would also like to suggest the following online services that might be helpful to you:

- Check your application status - You may either:
 - sign in to your online account to check your application status,
 - create an online account and link your application to it, or
 - use the online tool \(Client Application Status \(CAS\)\).
- Change of address
- Find application forms and guides
- Help Centre - To find answers, you may consult the different sections or type keywords related to your question

Thank you,

GeorgiaCassandra

Details: I am writing to respectfully inquire about the status of my application, which I submitted to IRCC. On May 7, 2024, I received a refusal letter regarding my work permit extension's application. Since then, I have been unable to work, and my employer has granted me temporary leave to address this situation. However, I am unable to provide my employer with a specific timeline for my return. Given the circumstances, I kindly request an update on my application status and an estimate of the time it will take to reach a decision. This information will greatly assist me in planning my professional commitments and alleviating the uncertainty surrounding my employment situation. Thank you for your understanding and prompt attention to this matter. I look forward to your response. Sincerely, Dibayndu Das.
